

Excellence in School Safety Award, Titanium with Honors

For the sixth year in a row, the Coxsackie - Athens Central School District received the Excellence in School Safety Award, Titanium with Honors, from Utica National Insurance on March 23, 2010. This award underscores the District's priority of safety in all aspects of its operation. We extend special congratulations to Mrs. Leslie Copleston, Chief Financial Officer; Mr. David Proper, Administrator for Discipline/Athletic Director; Mr. Eric Besenfelder, Director of Facilities; and, Mr. Theodore Nugent, Transportation Supervisor, for leading the District's effort in all aspects of school safety.
