CACSD Participation

Students, Teachers, Parents and Administrators Speak Up!
Open through December 18th, 2009

Speak Up is a national online survey where students, parents and educators can participate in the national, state and local dialog about key educational topics.

Sample Questions from the 2008 Speak Up Survey

Teacher/Admin- Besides not having enough time in your school day, what are the major obstacles you face when using technology in your school? (Check all that apply)

Teacher/Admin- How would you like your district to use technology to create a professional learning community?

Student- How could your school make it easier for you to work electronically? (Check all that apply)

Student- If you were the school principal, what would you do to make sure that every student was successful?

Parent- Do you think your child's school is doing a good job of preparing today's students for the jobs of the 21st century?

Parent- Are you satisfied with the use of technology at your child's school? Which of the following would you rate as acceptable?

Participating schools and districts will receive free, online access to their results in February 2010. The survey takes 10-15 minutes to complete so be sure to set aside enough time to finish.

Don't miss your opportunity to participate in this dialogue!
