- During the above exam week, REGULAR INSTRUCTION and CLASSES will be in session each day, except during the afternoon of Tuesday, January 24th.
- On Tuesday, January 24th, dismissal will be at 11:15 am for all students who are not taking the Comprehensive English Exam. Those students scheduled to take the exam, should report directly to the cafeteria upon dismissal and wait for an announcement to report to their exam rooms.

- All students not taking the Comprehensive English Exam on Tuesday, January 24th must leave the campus at dismissal. Access to the building will be restricted until the exam is complete. Students who must remain on campus will need the permission of the building principal and will need to remain in the cafeteria or other designated area.
- Students taking any exam other than the Comprehensive English Exam will do so during regular instructional time. For all exams, please see your classroom teacher or guidance counselor to find out the location of your exam. All faculty and staff have been provided with a complete roster of room assignments and locations for each exam. This is also available in the Main Office.
- Students should remember to arrive to their exam location approximately fifteen minutes prior to the start time of the exam.

Keep in mind:

Regents and RCT Exams last 3 hours!**

For Morning Exams: No students may enter the exam room after 10 AM
No students may leave the exam room before 10AM

For Afternoon Exams: No students may enter the exam room after 2:15 PM
No students may leave the exam room before 2:15 PM

There are no make-up provisions for students who arrive late or miss an exam!!!

In the Exam Room:

NO backpacks, cell phones, or other communication devices may be used. Use of these items or any perception of cheating will result in a zero and a forfeited exam. All of these items must be turned off and left in the front of the exam room until the session is complete. Please bring pencils, pens, calculators and other materials (reading materials for when you are finished.)
